

SPRING 1990 AUTOGRAPH AUCTION

PUBLIC & MAIL BID AUCTION #88

MAY 10, 1990

26 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, NY 10004

TERMS OF SALE

- 1) A 10% buyers charge will be added to the hammer price of each lot purchased.
- 2) All bids are per lot as numbered in this catalog.
- 3) We reserve the right to withdraw any lot prior to sale.
- 4) All successful bidders shall be billed for postage, handling and insurance.
- 5) NASCA reserves the right to reject any bids not made in good faith and further reserves the right to ban any bidder from participation in its sales for any reason deemed appropriate at our sole discretion.
- 6) A NASCA auction bidder expressly waves any claim or right to an accounting, damages or compensation arising out of NASCA's failure to receive or execute any bid due to exclusion from our sales, clerical errors or other causes. No bids will be accepted from any person who has not signed a registration form or a bidder sheet.
- 7) United States coins and currency will not, in conformity with law, be opened at less than the face value.
- 8) No "buy" or "unlimited" bids will be accepted. We will act as agents for all mail bidders in the sale. Mail bids will be opened at the next interval over the second highest bid except where the intrinsic or regular market worth of the item dictates an opening at its fair market value. Floor bidding intervals will have an average increment of about 5% at the discretion of the auctioneer.
- 9) In the case of a tie between a mail bidder on the book and the floor, the mail bidder shall take precedence.
- 10) All bids must be in whole dollar amounts; this includes percentage increases.
- 11) Check your bid sheets carefully. We can not assume any responsibility for errors made in the amount bid or lot numbers listed. Make sure your sheet is signed.
- 12) No minors may participate in our sales. Agents bidding on behalf of others will be held liable if their principals fail to make payment.
- 13) Payment for purchases is to be made in cash upon receipt of invoice. No lots may be taken away unless paid for in full. A late charge of 1½% per month will be charged on the invoice total if payment is not received within 10 days of mailing the invoice. Bidders not known to us are required to deposit 25% of their bids in advance.
- 14) Title does not pass until payment in full is received. NASCA reserves the right to await clearance of any check before making delivery.
- 15) If a collection agency attorney is required to collect outstanding accounts, all agency and court costs, witness and attorney fees and all other costs of any kind incurred by NASCA shall be borne by the defendant. The signer of a NASCA bid sheet or participant in the auction concedes the jurisdiction of the courts of New York State or the U.S. in New York City as NASCA alone shall elect. The participant in a NASCA auction also assumes both corporate and personal liability for unpaid auction bills.
- 16) New York State sales taxes or other state sales or use taxes shall be levied, as required by law. Dealers and other non residents are reminded that sales tax must be collected unless Form ST-128.1 has been filed properly, under regulations effective 1 December 1982.
- 17) NASCA may reopen the bidding on a lot under the following circumstances: 1) NASCA has failed to execute correctly a mail bid. 2) A party purchasing the lot on the floor has done so in error. 3) Where a protest is made after the hammer has fallen but before the bidding has commenced on the next lot. 4) Where the auctioneer has determined that he has overlooked a party still bidding on the lot but before the calling of the next lot. 5) At the discretion of the Auctioneer.
- 18) In the event of a dispute, the auctioneer's decision is final.

GUARANTEES AND RIGHTS OF RECOVERY

- 19) No price adjustments will be made on the hammer price of a lot whether there is a complaint about the whole lot or only one item in it. The entire lot must be returned if a refund is to be made.
- 20) Persons placing bids are responsible for meeting the maximum amounts represented on their bid sheets. NASCA reserves the right to reject frivolous complaints and to take appropriate actions against such bidders under paragraphs 5 and 15 above.
- 21) All material in this catalog is guaranteed to be genuine unless otherwise described.
- 22) No lots may be returned by floor bidders except for non-authenticity.
- 23) Mail bidders may return lots for reasons of non-authenticity or improper description within 5 days of receipt or thirty days from the auction's last day, whichever comes first. Failure to execute this privilege in a timely manner either from a failure to pay promptly or from any other cause shall void it.
- 24) In cases where a question has arisen as to the authenticity of an item, the purchaser must, before settlement day (30 days after the sale), notify NASCA of his intention to return the item, confirmed in writing. The item will be examined by a recognized expert; if the item proves authentic, the sale will be consummated. If the item is not authentic, the sale price will be refunded.
- 25) In the event of unsuccessful litigation the plaintiff shall pay NASCA's legal costs, counsel and witness fees and all other costs incurred by it in defense against such suit together with interest on any funds expended at the New York prime rate from the date of actual disbursement.
- 26) The same protections applicable to NASCA apply to each and every one of their officers and employees unless they shall be convicted of knowingly selling false or stolen goods.
- 27) NASCA assumes no liability for merchandise lost, stolen or damaged while in the possession of a party to whom merchandise has been shipped. The purchaser is solely responsible for the safe keeping and insurance of any items in their possession.
- 28) All accounts are payable to NASCA in U.S. funds and remittances must cover the service charges for foreign drafts which shall be added to each invoice. No credit card payments will be received by NASCA for auction sales, catalogs or other monies due to NASCA.
- 29) The placing of a bid shall constitute full acceptance of the foregoing terms and conditions of sale.

American lawyer and politician; known as the Commoner, candidate for presidency of the United States three times. Interesting ALS, 4pps, large 8vo, on Secretary of State letterhead, Washington, Jan. 12, 1913. To evangelist Billy Sunday whose service Bryan and wife have attended. "...We noted the attention of that vast audience and watched the people, men and women, old and young, who thronged about you in response to your appeal...Do not allow yourself to be disturbed by criticism - God is giving you "souls for your hire", and that is sufficient answer...Go on, and may the Heavenly Father use you for many years...to bring multitude to know Christ as He presented himself when He said: I am the Way, the Truth and the Life...Yours truly/ W. J. Bryan". Few light handling marks and minor ink blots. ($150-Up)

37 BUCHANAN, JAMES 1791-1868

15th President of the United States. DS, as president, one page, large horizontal folio, Washington, May 30th, 1859. Appointment of George Lee Brent of Virginia as Secretary of the Legation of the United States of America to the Argentine Confederation. Bluish-grey U. S. seal affixed. Countersigned as Secretary of State by Lewis Cass (1782-1866), U. S. Senator and Democratic Presidential candidate (1848). Light foxing and handling marks. ($300-Up)

38 BUCK, PEARL S. 1892-1973

American Nobel Prize winning author. Original typed manuscript with a few holograph additions, 82pps, 4to, circa 1960, plus a first draft of "ACT III", with very extensive holograph corrections, including some full pages. The manuscript is entitled The White Bird, and is an allegorical play in three acts of man vs woman, war vs peace, and "Love Conquers All". The play begins with Basil, Hera (her beloved), and her mother in a jungle where Basil is busy dispelling the women's superstitions that women are impregnated by a white bird. The next scene shows the couple somewhat more civilized, with Basil's mother-in-law still mad at him for destroying Hera's belief in the supernatural. The 2nd and most of the 3rd Acts takes place during a war, supposedly WWII. The last scene details Basil's entry into politics, by which time, Hera has really come to believe in him. Manuscript is in fine condition. Portion of first draft typescript originally torn in half but repaired. ($300-Up)

39 BULLARD, ROBERT LEE 1861-1947

To Mr. Bean, responding to a request for an autographed photo, "...We are especially trying to keep things from boiling over again in the Near East." ($75-Up)

41 BUNDY, McGEORGE 1919-

U. S. educator and public official, called one of the "best and brightest" of John F. Kennedy's close circle. He was special assistant for security affairs to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. TLS, one page, 4to, on The White House stationery, Washington, October 19, 1964. At the request of President Johnson, Bundy has addressed a lengthy reply to Congressman Abraham J. Multer. The letter concerns the Bolton Amendment and Multer's role in its defeat. Johnson was appreciative of his support as it "...would have tied the hands of the Department of State in dealing with the particularly difficult problems in the Near East, while the Roosevelt amendment gives it the flexibility it needs...etc." A significant letter in which Bundy closes by assuring the Congressman that the security of Israel and the Near East states are of great concern to the Administration. ($100-Up)

42 BURR, AARON 1756-1836

American Revolutionary officer and politician; Vice President of the United States. Document Signed (twice), partly printed, partly in Burr's hand, folio, 4pps, including integral blank leaf, December 21, 1797. Indenture between Burr and Charles Loss, both of New York City. Burr leases (or "demises") to Loss, "Lots or pieces of Ground part and parcel of the Farm or piece of land in the Seventh ward...which was on the first day of May (1767) granted and demised by the Corporation of Trinity church to Abraham Mortier, deceased, and his assigns for the term of ninety-nine years..." The land specified in the lease was at Hetty and Greenwich streets in New York City and was demised as follows: "...the said Loss to pay only thirty dollars yearly from the time of opening..." It is partly fulfilled in the hand of Burr, who signed it at the bottom of the first page with Loss (and their seals). On the verso, Burr has boldly written and endorsement and signed the document again. ($250-Up)

43 BUSH, GEORGE 1924-

41st President of the United States; Vice President (thus at signing). Magazine Illustration Signed, 3-1/2" x 5", in color, n.d. Political cartoon by Patrick D. Milbourn featuring Bush, men in uniform, woman with baby, and a spectacled man with a pin "JUST SAY NO", cut-out from a magazine depicting the President's drive against drugs. Signed at bottom center. Accompanied by a letter signed on behalf of Bush by Thomas J. Collamore, VP's Assistant for Operations, large 8vo, Washington, January 16, 1989, and front part its original free-franked envelope from the Office of the Vice President. ($85-Up)

President; Lt. (JG.) George Bush flew a TBM "Avenger" with Torpedo Squadron 51 in World War II. His group was assigned to a light air craft carrier. They flew during intense combat in the South Pacific. This Limited Edition Print, signed by Pres. Bush depicts his squadron returning to their ship after a combat strike. Robert Taylor, noted aviation artist, caught the action in a striking painting, reproduced in a print, 20" x 29". He signed and numbered all prints. Bush and the 10 members of his crew have boldly signed the litho, authenticated in an accompanying Certificate of Authenticity. This is #564 of a total of 1000 copies. There will be no other editions. New, with original carton. ($500-Up)

To Colonel George Gibson, on military matters, specifically on a request for an "additional advance to Col. James Johnson". Calhoun writes: "...I regret, that it has become necessary to decide on it, previous to my return to Washington... As a general rule, I am opposed to free advances, but there are instances, in which, if the general rule is rigidly adhered to, the publick may suffer...This appears to be one of those cases...Col. R. M. Johnson [later Vice President] who acts as the agent of his brother informs me, that the deposits of 68,000 rations under the old contract be made at St. Louis...I should consider the advance of the full amount of these deposits as perfectly reasonable..." Calhoun goes on to discuss the deposits at great length. Light aging and soiling, minor edge tears. (Photo) ($450-Up)

Scottish essayist and historian; one of foremost men of letters of his era. ALS, 2-1/2pps, small 8vo, Chelsea, Jan. 25, 1848. Acknowledges receipt of a book and farther suggests "...i think it would be handsome and proper to send Emerson the American an Editor's or Publisher's copy...". On another issue, Carlyle adds "... Fraser's Magazine would of course be the natural vehicle, if I had anything farther to say...indeed I consider the whole controversy as one of the idlest and foolishhest that has agitated the long ears of the Public for a great while..." Signed "T. Carlyle". ($200-Up)

From Andrew G. Curtin, 1817-1894, Governor of Pennsylvania (1860-1867). ALS, 2-1/2pps, 8vo, Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, Dec. 16, 1861. Curtin, a strong Lincoln supporter, organized a military organization for his state and pushed through an act providing for a volunteer reserve corps. In this interesting letter, Curtin writes to Lincoln that he has exceeded his quota assigned by the President for volunteer duty; he asks the President to place the soldiers only under the command of a military officer of Pennsylvania. He recommends that the commander be Col. Ruff and that he be commissioned a Major General of Volunteers. [In 1865, Ruff was brevetted Brig. General in the Army]. Written in ink up to the fifth line of text, the rest in pencil. Very good condition. ($150-Up)

To His Excellency Carlos Pellegrini, Constitutional President of the Argentine Republic, reciprocating the "...desire to cultivate and strengthen the cordial relations which happily exist between the United States and the Argentine Republic..." Very nice Presidential item. ($450-Up)

141 HARRISON, BENJAMIN 1833-1901

23rd President of the United States. ALS "Benj. Harrison", as President, one full page, 8vo, on Executive Mansion letterhead, Washington, March 16, 1892. To Mrs. J. S. Clarkson in Asheville, N. C. offering his deep concern relative to Mr. Clarkson's illness, suggesting they go to the Hot Springs, complaining about "disagreeable" events in March, and passing on Mrs. Harrison's concern. Clarkson played a decisive role for Harrison when the Mormon Church gave up polygamy in order to obtain Statehood for Utah. Republican leaders, headed by Clarkson, persuaded Harrison to grant amnesty to accused Mormons. This became a key issue in the 1892 election. Handsomely double-matted, with holograph envelope and engraved portrait of Harrison. (Formerly B. Altman). (Photo) ($650-Up)

142 HART, JOHN 1711-1779

145 HAYES, RUTHERFORD B. 1822-1893

19th President of the United States. Concluding portion of an ALS, 12mo, n.p., n.d. Probably signed as President-elect, to Dr. A. M. Ross, famous! Canadian-American naturalist and confidential agent of Lincoln during the Civil War. The portion reads "...pecially for the kind terms in which you spoke of my efforts in the responsible and difficult position to which I have been called." Small tear at upper and lower left corners, not affecting signature. Matted in green under a beautiful engraving of the White House. (Photo) ($185-Up)

146 HAYNE, PAUL HAMILTON 1830-1886

American poet; publisher of Poems, Sonnets and Other Poems, Avolio, Legends and Lyrics, The Mountain of the Lovers, The Broken Battalions, etc. ALS, 1-1/4pps, small 4to, Charleston, June 21st, 1858. To a personal friend in Virginia, Mr. Cooke, to whom he has sent a copy of "Esteourt" magazine, and from whom he is requesting assistance in seeking for a "...farm-house among the mountains, where I can ride, shoot, & be away from fashion, & fashionable tyrannies...", which must be "...first is wholesome & the last cleanly & cheap (for I am a poor - a very poor devil). I care not a button for the plainness & the rudeness. Of course I wouldn't like to carry my wife...among low people..." Light soiling, minor ink smudges. Uncommon letter of this noted Southern poet. ($200-Up)

147 HEMINGWAY, ERNEST 1898-1961

American journalist, novelist and short-story writer. First Edition of Hemingway's For Whom The Bell Tolls, 1940, inscribed in the opening page, "...Hope you get as much pleasure reading this as I did writing it. Sincerely Ernest Hemingway." No d/j. Spotted and loose binding, otherwise very nice. (Photo) ($250-Up)

148 HERBERT, VICTOR 1859-1924

161 HORTHY DE NAGYBANYA, Nicolas 1868-1957

DS, in French, 2pps, with a blank integral leaf, 4to, Palais Royal, Budapest, May 17, 1941. Appointment of Francois Marosy de Marossolymos as Minister Plenipotentiary to Hungary. Paper seal affixed next to signatures on verso. With original envelope. Horthy was the former regent of Hungary who was arrested by the German in 1944 after calling for an armistice with the Allies. He was released and went into exile to Portugal. Fine. ($100-Up)

162 HOUSTON, SAMUEL 1793-1893

American soldier and political leader; sent by President Jackson to negotiate with tribes in Texas; became First president of the Republic of Texas. Autograph Manuscript Signed, 1-1/3pps, folio, on blue-grey lined paper, Nacogdoches, Texas, May 1855. Manuscript filed by Houston requesting the court to order a new survey of his land grant in Nacogdoches, where he first settled in 1835. Houston feels that the previous survey was erroneous and was based upon inaccurate certified copies from the Land Office. The defendant in this case is James Starr, land agent, who was ironically land commissioner appointed by Houston during his term as President. Accompanied by another manuscript, written and signed as court clerk by Thomas Green, later Brig. General, CSA, killed at the Battle of Pleasant Hill, containing the court judgement. Interesting combination of Houston's and Green's desirable signatures. (Photo) ($1500-Up)

(HOWARD HUGHES) 1905-1976

This extraordinary man was a famous aviator, film producer and industrialist who enjoyed the company of some of the world's most beautiful women. The billionaire became a recluse in his later years and was celebrated for his eccentricities. His will earned newspaper headlines for many years.

THE VIRGINIAN-PILOT THURSDAY, DECE

Charlotte Tilbrook, former secretary to Howard Hughes

VIRGINIA BEACH — Charlotte Seidler Tilbrook, 89, former secretary to millionaire Howard Hughes, died Dec. 27, 1988, leaving behind a legacy of making her community a more beautiful place to live.

When Mrs. Tilbrook, a native of Montana and the widow of Lee Gilmore Tilbrook, arrived in Virginia Beach more than 30 years ago, she brought a little bit of the Hollywood splendor with her.

For the 11 years between 1931 and 1942, she was personal secretary to Howard Hughes, a pilot, movie producer, inventor and one of the richest and most eccentric men in the world.

According to longtime friends, however, Mrs. Tilbrook was unimpressed by her past and rarely boasted of her affiliation with the rich and famous, which included brushes with Jean Harlow and Jane Russell. Rather, she seemed more interested in contributing to the community in which she lived.

"She considered those the Hollywood happy days," said family friend Trisia Renn, 42. "To her, that was a bygone era and, when I met her as a little girl, she was involved with her gardening and beautification of Virginia Beach."

Aside from her employment with Hughes, she had her own local claim to fame.

For her organizational efforts with the Virginia Beautification Commission in the early 1950s, Mrs. Tilbrook was the city's first woman honored with the First Citizen Award in 1954.

She spearheaded the project to remove the old railroad tracks along the Oceanfront in addition to landscaping Virginia Beach General Hospital's new facility on First Colonial Road.

"We used to call the area where the tracks were 'garbage gut,'" said Louisa Venable Kyle, a Virginia Beach historian and resident since 1926. "For many years I watched master the beautification of the area."

She was treasurer of the Virginia Beach Art Association and helped sponsor the Boardwalk Art Show, hopes of raising money for a new arts center.

Also, because of her passion for horticulture and the aesthetic, she was a member of Cavalier Park Garden Club, Bay Colony Garden Club, Princess Anne Garden Club and honorary member of the Virginia Beach Garden Club.

"She had a working greenhouse when she lived in Bay Colony where she grew lovely, rare garden specimens," Renn said.

Survivors include two nieces, Jo Seidler of Boston and Alice S. Rae Lennox, Kan., and a nephew, Mark Seidler of Boston.

A memorial service will be conducted at 4 p.m. today in 11 D Olive Funeral Apartments, Lawkin Road, by the Rev. Andrew Macbeth. Burial will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

162A A remarkable archive of personal and business files and newspaper clippings belonging to Charlotte Mays Tilbrook. As well as being Hughes' secretary during his Hollywood days, she was a woman of many accomplishments who married another employer, Gilmore Tilbrook, a successful businessman and philanthropist. This lot includes a small memo book, photographs, birthday cards, newspaper clippings, creditcards, social security cards and over 50 other pieces that must be seen.

Long Battle Expected on Hughes' Will

LAS VEGAS (UPI)—The executor named in Howard Hughes' purported will and a top handwriting expert agreed Friday that the writing and signature are authentic, but a legal battle royal is expected over the $2-billion fortune by those left out.

Legal authorities in Nevada predicted that it will be many months before the courts dispose of challenges on such grounds as a claim that the eccentric billionaire was not mentally competent or that the will was drawn under duress.

Charles Hamilton, a renowned handwriting expert in New York who recently denounced as fake a document purported to be George Washington's commission as commander-in-chief, said after examination of a photocopy that Hughes' signature "is indeed genuine."

And Noah Dietrich, Hughes' top aide for 22 years who was named executor, said in Los Angeles Friday that after mutual doubts he is now convinced that the 1972 will is authentic.

He also may have used the words "Spruce Goose" as positive identification and also maybe he didn't dislike that nickname as much as people thought.

The first public court hearing on the will is not expected before May 14. It will be held in Las Vegas before District Judge Keith Hayes.

At that time probate commissioner Russell W. Hale will provide the results of the tests and testimony as to whether the holographic (handwritten) will is in Hughes' writing and that all conditions of probate have been met.

That also will be the occasion for contesting the will. Clark County Court Clerk said that it handwritten document is legitimate. Dietrich assigned a lawyer to handle the probate process in Las Vegas.

Dietrich, 67, who split with Hughes in 1957, first questioned misspellings of words and the description of Hughes' famous flying boat as the "Spruce Goose," an appellation that the flier was said to detest.

Howard used to work three days straight without sleep, and the misspellings could be explained by that, Dietrich said.

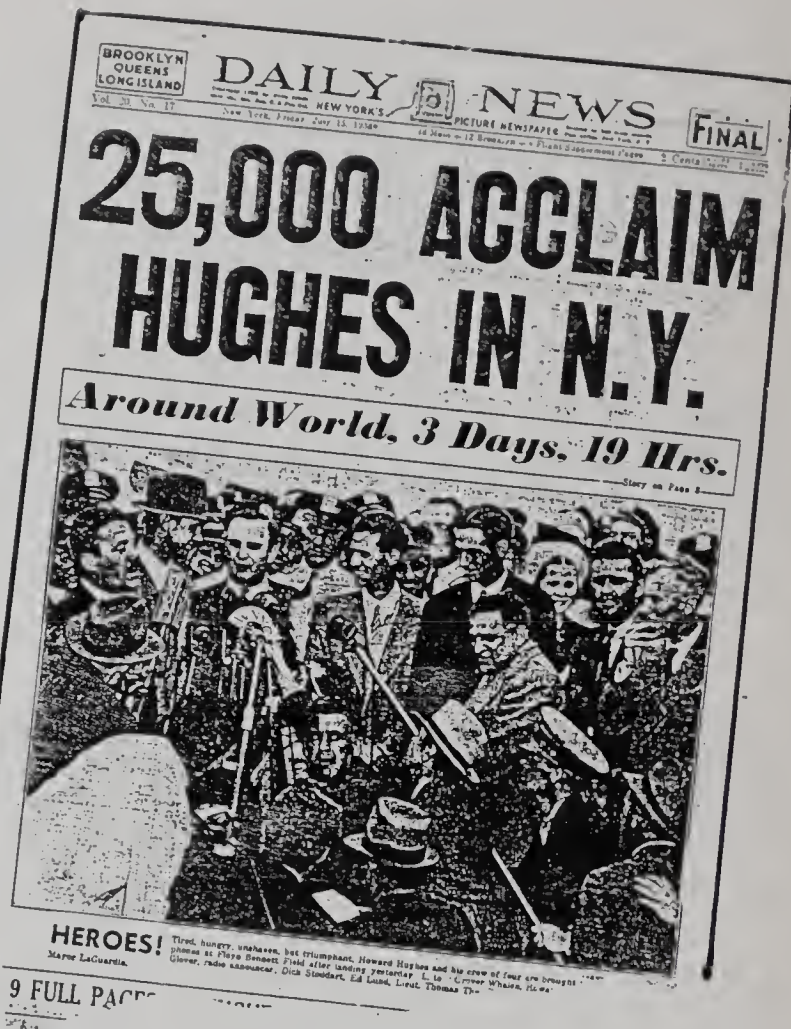

He also may have used the words

My dear Sir, Wexham, 24/6/19

I am going to Ireland, dead beat, in a few days, to recuperate. And I have a letter from Piers by the same post as yours, agreeing that nothing can be done at the A.D.A. but work time until the permanent director returns. His sister (Mrs. Vaulough) reports that he is demoralized; but he wants a holiday and an interval for readjustment of his domestic affairs. Also, of course, the Council is scattering until the autumn term begins. The moral of all this is that we had better leave the matter over until it is ripe for settlement in September or thereabouts.

I don't think you would interfere with the teaching staff (of which you would be one) any more than they all interfere with one another. As there is no really concerted teaching, and each teacher operates for his or her hour quite independently, you could hardly in Shakespeare delivery without conflict or even contact with any of the others.

To Hon. Abraham Multer, New York Supreme Court Justice. Humphrey writes, in part: "...It is my hope and prayer...that 1968 will be a year of progress and interfaith brotherhood for our beloved America. For our sister democracy of Israel, may it be a time of continued progress and of realization of lasting peace, based on the five-point program presented by President Johnson and renewed in his fine visit with Prime Minister Eshkol..." Fine content re American and Israel relations. With franked envelope. ($200-Up)

187 KELLER, HELEN 1880-1968

Deaf and blind American author and lecturer; an inspiration to those with like handicaps. Superb TLS, 3 separate pages, small 4to, on her imprinted Arcan Ridge stationery, Westport, Connecticut, August 24, 1949. To Katharine Cornell, noted actress of the American stage, eloquently expressing her thanks for a wonderful stay in Cornell's resthouse at Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts. In part, "...I am quite as unable as I was when we left 'Chip Chop' to express in words the beautiful significance of the time passed in the sweet radiance of your society. You and Nancy [Hamilton] were the most delightful, understanding and considerate hostesses imaginable...you had taken me to your hearts, and were folding me in the downy comfort of perfect rest...Looking back, I see in my fingers 'Chip Chop,' large, airy, full of ocean odors, and you, Katharine, surrounded by an assemblage of tastefully arranged objects...each one of which is the result of a choice, the mark of a taste...I was initiated into your life, the history of your dreams and a new vista of your soul. Your happy hospitality was air, light and sunshine to our weary selves..." Signed in pencil. With original stamped and postmarked envelope. Truly an expressive letter from the mind of this remarkable woman! Excellent! ($250-Up)

204 KOSSUTH, LAJOS 1802-1894

Hungarian patriot and statesman. ALS, 1-1/2pps, small 4to, Boston, Massachusetts, May 18, 1852. Kossuth headed the Hungarian insurrection of 1848-9; after persuading the Hungarian National Assembly to declare independence of Hungary, he was appointed governor of Hungary with dictatorial powers (1848). As the insurrection was crushed, Kossuth resigned his powers and fled into exile, residing in Turkey, the United States and England. Before departing for England, Kossuth writes this letter to enlist American support. "...I leave the interests of the cause which I plead, the cause of civil and religious liberty in Europe, in your hands who possess my full confidence and...the friendship of Hungary...I trust that your generous zeal, will find means to turn this sympathy into practical account for the cause of freedom..." As direct result of Kossuth's appeal, a series of "EGY FORINT" banknotes were issued in America to help finance the Hungarian insurrection ($400-Up)

205 KU KLUX KLAN

208 LINCOLN'S DEATH SCENE

Famous engraving by A. H. Ritchie (1868) depicting the fictitious scene at Lincoln's bedside during the dreadful night of April 14, 1865. Various doctors, government officials and others are portrayed with great fidelity. The room where Lincoln died - across the street from Ford's Theatre - could not possibly accommodate this group. Virtually mint condition and extremely rare. (Photo) 35" x 25" ($750-Up)

209 LINCOLN, ABRAHAM 1809-1865

16th President of the United States. DS as President, one page, large folio on vellum, July 16, 1862. Appointment of Edward Cooper as "Additional Paymaster in the service of the United States..." With engraved vignettes of an eagle at top, and flags, cannon, drums, swords, cannonballs, and other accoutrements of war at bottom. Countersigned by Edwin M. Stanton as Secretary of War, with a blue paper seal. The vellum has uniform dampstaining and foxing with Lincoln's signature readable but quite light. The fold wear is moderate with no fold splits. Mounted on cardboard. ($800-Up)

210 LINCOLN, LEVI 1749-1820

American lawyer and politician; a distinguished political figure in Massachusetts. ALS, one page, legal folio, Worcester, Oct. 2d, 1820. To an Esquire, Lincoln writes: "Upon a recent more leisure and faithful examination, than any previous opportunity had permitted, of the case, presented by your Petition and also that of Mr. Gill against Prentiss, I have become entirely satisfied that it is completely within the Chancery Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court,..." Interesting legal content. Light foxing, few small pieces missing at bottom edge, two short tape repairs on verso. ($350-Up)

211 LIND, JENNY 1820-1887

Famous Swedish soprano singer; popularly called "The Swedish Nightingale". ALS, 3pps, 12mo, South Kensington, Nov. 26, n.d. To Julie, "I do not at all want George before you arrive - so please do not send him here before..." Signed prominently and boldly as "Jenny L. Goldschmidt" ($150-Up)

212 LINDBERGH, CHARLES 1902-1974

American aviator; first to cross the Atlantic alone in 1927. TLS, 2pps, 4to, Weald, November 10, 1937. Addressed to Commander P. V. H. Weems, inventor of the Weems System of Navigation, plus several types of hand held navigational computers. Lindbergh had agreed to endorse an astral watch, made by Longiness, to be marketed by Weems in his extensive catalogue. Lindbergh had developed a feature on the watch. It's one of the very few instances that Lindbergh had lent his name to anything. In this letter, Lindbergh writes, in part: "...It seems to me that celestial navigation is becoming more important from a military standpoint as the range of bombing planes increases. I have often thought about the possibility of large cities, such as London, being bombed through fog and from high altitudes by celestial navigation. It would, of course, be impossible to hit any particular objective, but the fact of dropping a large number of small bombs promiscuously (sic) might be very great. Especially if incendiary bombs were used over a city of wooden houses..." Signed "Charles A. Lindbergh". Rust mark from a paper clip on top left of first page and verso of last page, otherwise fine. (Photo) ($800-Up)

213 LINDBERGH, CHARLES 1902-1974

American aviator. TLS, one page, 4to, Illiec, July 15, 1938. To Commander P. V. H. Weems, thanking him for an earlier correspondence and congratulating him for receiving the Thomas Gray Memorial Trust Award. Signed "C. A. Lindbergh" Small paper clip staining at top left, else fine. ($500-Up)

214 LONDON, JACK 1876-1916

American novelist and short story writer; formerly a sailor, waterfront loafer, and hobo, with only a high school education, but with more than 50 books and short stories to his credit. Postcard Signed, small 12mo, n.d. Printing card promoting London's The Valley of the Moon bearing a portrait of London at the wheel of his yawl "Roamer". Alongside the portrait, London has penned across: "Just back after seven months absence. Jack London" With TLS of his secretary, J. Byrne, dated Glen Ellen, California, August 7, 1916, presenting the card to one Mrs. Saunders. Also included is a bookplate featuring a dog's head with Jack London's printed name. (Photo) ($350-Up)

In relation to the Land agency; I have heard much said. There was a little stir for a few days since upon it...But for the last week, I have not heard anything. Stetson will go home...this week and will give you the whys and wherefores, much better than I could give them to you. I was amused the other evening in our caucus, (by) the course which Haydon and some others took on the nomination of Governor. They were in the same dilemma, that friend G(reen?) found himself in. They were all much...opposed to Legislative Nominations, but now they are willing for it. I stated in Caucus that I presumed that all understood that object of the opposition to Legislative Nominations then...That object had been all accomplished and I should expect that men who then offered, would now support it...and so it proved to be. Haydon thought we had better nominate (someone).-We shall do so soon, within a week or two, nor shall I be disposed to do any different from what has been the usual course. The President (Polk), Clifford and (James) Buchanan will be here on Friday evening, the second day of July and will spend the third day at this
